5 LEGISLATIVE REQUIREMENTS

Safety Check

The Children's Act (2014) requires all students, who may work with children during the course of their study, to be safety checked. A safety check includes an interview, an identity check, review of work history, police vetting as a 'non-core' worker and an overall assessment of your safety to work with children. Safety checks are required to be completed every three years.

Police Vetting

If accepted into the programme you will be required to complete a NZ Police 'Request and Consent' form, whereby you consent to the NZ Police releasing any information they hold to Whitireia, if relevant to the purpose of the vetting request, refer 'Information Police may release' at the following address: www.police.govt.nz/advice-services/businesses-and-organisations/vetting/information-about-vetting

Do you have any convictions? If yes, please provide details below:

☐ Yes ☐ No

Are there any investigations or other matters that may be disclosed about you in the safety checking/police vetting process? If yes, please provide details below

☐ Yes ☐ No

Please provide details of any reason, including past events, you might be perceived to pose a risk to children (or others)?
