Important Information

- To graduate with the NZ Diploma in Information Systems, students need to successfully complete all eight compulsory courses listed above to a total of 120 credits.
- This programme is equivalent to Year One of the Bachelor of Information Technology. The corresponding degree courses are shown next to course names. IT5483 does not have a direct equivalent course in the degree, and an elective course will be chosen by the Programme Manager.
- IT5482 Fundamentals of Data Models and Databases is offered in both trimesters in 2026. Choosing IT5482 in Trimester 1 will therefore mean you need to take IT5485 Mathematics for IT in Trimester 2 to complete the qualification.
